

Business and the Law

Darren J. Sylvester

Darren J. Sylvester is a qualified barrister (England & Wales) and a qualified Solicitor (England & Wales) with over 20 years' experience in criminal and civil litigation. Darren practises in the areas of professional negligence, civil litigation, consumer law, charity law, travel law, and private client matters.

Darren is an advocate of Alternative Dispute Resolution and has been involved in many forms of ADR to bring cases to a resolution.

Darren founded DJS Law Solicitors in April 2016, is a member of the Professional Negligence Lawyers Association of England & Wales and co-authored How to Start a Law Firm – A Practical Guide to Offering Legal Services that was published by the Law Society of England & Wales in October 2020 (see How to Start a Law Firm – Law Society Bookshop).

Darren regularly speaks and writes on all areas of law, and has had articles published in The New Law Journal; The Law Society Gazette and the Solicitors' Journal.

DJS Law Solicitors specialises in contentious and non-contentious civil litigation and professional negligence disputes, specifically acting for clients who have been let down by poor professional services, or advice that has caused losses.

We act for businesses, individuals and charities and can help you resolve your claims against most professionals, including an architect, accountant, barrister, financial advisor, solicitor, surveyor or valuer, to list but a few.

Outside of our firm's specialism, we also have expertise in:

- Alternative dispute resolution
- Change of name deeds
- Charity law
- Commercial disputes
- Consumer law
- Landlord and tenant
- Lasting powers of attorney
- Swearing statutory declarations and affidavits
- Travel claims
- Wills, probate and estate administration
- Of Counsel for Gabriel J. Christian Associates, Washington DC

We offer easy, efficient and cost-cutting legal solutions to your legal problems and pride ourselves on offering every client value for money and affordable services.

Our Caribbean Legal Services offering means we can partner with barristers and solicitors throughout the Caribbean to provide cost-effective solutions to common issues such as title to land, dealing with adverse possession of property, and wills, probate and inheritance matters. ■
